This image shows a vertical, high-contrast scan of a book's binding. The central element is a light-colored, textured strip, likely the spine or a cover panel, which appears slightly worn and discolored. This central strip is flanked by dark, heavily textured borders that look like marbled paper or a different material. The top and bottom edges of the image show signs of wear, with some material missing or damaged, revealing the underlying structure. The overall appearance is aged and rustic.

Chapter 95.

AN ACT to amend chapter thirty of the Revised Statutes, relating to the protection of Game.

Section 1. Section thirty of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by striking out the said section after the figure "white", and inserting the following words: "whoever hunts, catches, kills or hunts, catches, kills, or takes any moose; or in any manner hunts, catches, kills, or takes any moose, or any cow moose, or part thereof, forfeits one hundred dollars for every moose or cow moose so hunted, caught, killed, destroyed or had in possession; and no person shall hunt, catch, kill, or take any moose, or any cow moose, or part thereof, during the months of January and February in any manner but as herein provided; and if destroyed in possession any bull moose, or any part thereof, then in close time, under the same penalty; so that all acts as amended, shall read as follows:

§ 867. If any person, or persons, shall hunt, catch, destroy with dogs any moose, or in any manner hunt, catch, kills, destroys or has in possession any cow moose, or part thereof, forfeits one hundred dollars for every moose, or cow moose so hunted, caught, killed, destroyed or taken in possession; and if destroyed in possession any bull moose, or any part thereof, then in close time, under the same penalty; so that all acts as amended, shall read as follows:

Secr. 2. Section ten of said chapter is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the figures "ten", and inserting the following words: "whenever hunters, trappers, killers or destroyers with dogs or any device or contrivance kill or destroy any deer or caribou so hunted, caught, killed or destroyed; and no person shall, between the first days of January and October in any manner hunt, catch, kill, destroy or take in close time any deer or caribou, or any animal or creature therefrom, taken in close time, under the same penalty. Any person may lawfully kill any dog found hunting moose, deer or caribou, or kept or used for that purpose. Any person owning or having in possession any such animal, or any part thereof, or any deer or caribou, or that is kept or used for such hunting, forfeits not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars; so that said action as aforesaid, shall read as follows:

"Sec. 1. Whoever hunts, catches, kills or destroys with dogs any deer or caribou, forfeits, for each deer for every deer or caribou so hunted, caught, killed or destroyed; and no person shall, under the first five days of January, 1907, hunt, catch, kill, or destroy any deer or caribou, or have in possession any deer or caribou, or part thereof taken in close time, under the same penalty. Any person may lawfully kill any dog

"SEC. 3. Section eleven of said chapter is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the figures "eleven" and inserting the following words to wit: "Whoever kills or takes any animal having in possession any dog for the purpose of hunting mink, deer or caribou, or that is kept or used for such hunting, forfeits not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars for each dog so owned, kept, used or in possession."
